Mother's Day restaurants: LI eateries offering specials for mom

You've earned it, Mom.

This time, when you're asked what's for dinner, just say "reservations."

Yes, Mother's Day is one of the hospitality trade's biggest days. Countless restaurants will be offering specials for the big day in Nassau and Suffolk.

Here's a sampler of Long Island restaurants that plan to do just that. For these and other local spots, the best advice is to book that table as soon as possible. Tax and tip not included in prices.

SUFFOLK

MIRABELLE AND MIRABELLE TAVERN AT THE THREE VILLAGE INN in Stony Brook plans a grand buffet on Mother's Day from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. The cost is $52 a person, or half price for children 10 and younger, and includes a carving station with prime rib and leg of lamb; chafing dishes of duck confit and grilled swordfish; a raw bar; and lobster bisque. Omelets, French toast and pancakes are available at the brunch station.
