

<https://nwsdy.li/2xkZinj>
September 21, 2017

Where to celebrate Oktoberfest on Long Island

Oktoberfest started in 1810 to celebrate a royal marriage. This year, the first keg will be tapped in Munich on Sept. 16.

And from Franklin Square to East Hampton, Long Island restaurants are joining the party.

Mirabelle Tavern in Stony Brook plans a $58 fixed-price dinner on Oct. 5 pairing German and Alsatian specialties with beers. Reservations are required.

150 Main St., Stony Brook, 631-751-0555, lessings.com