Whether you're looking to explore something new and unique during a meal with your favorite oenophile or you're catching up with old friends and want to add a memorable dimension to the evening, these one-of-a-kind vintages will make it extra special. Restaurants seeking to offer their guests the most exclusive experience possible are teaming up with vineyards to create private label wines. The customization process allows restaurants to craft the perfect varietal to match their food and mood. Here are 15 restaurants with private wine labels for a singular dining and drinking adventure. Not near any of these spots? Find the right restaurant in your neck of the woods at one of the more than 50,000 restaurants on OpenTable.com.

Mirabelle, Stony Brook, New York

Whether you're in the mood for red, white, or bubbles, the restaurant has an exclusive option for you to enjoy. There's the 2014 Old Vines Reserve Merlot from Lenz Winery, rich with the flavors of black cherries, dark plums, and a velvety chocolate finish; the 2018 Chenin Blanc by Paumanok Vineyards, packed with grapefruit and pineapple tones; and a sparkler from Sparkling Pointe. You should probably cover your bases and just order all three. Make a reservation at Mirabelle.
