

The Power List 2018: Reader Picks

Find out who readers nominated as restaurant industry leaders

Each year, Nation's Restaurant News editors select outstanding industry executives for The Power List. But we also want to hear who you think deserves recognition.

That's where our Reader Picks comes in.

We asked you, NRN readers, to tell us who you see as leaders in the restaurant industry. You responded with a slew of CEOs and CMOs from companies large and small. You suggested owners and founders, consultants and legal experts.

So take a look through these Reader Picks at your peers who are helping to shape the restaurant industry.
