LI Restaurants Serving French Onion Soup Just Right

GOOD EATS mary demaio | NOVEMBER 15, 2017

As the chill starts to settle in, nothing screams comfort like a piping hot bowl of French onion soup. It's warm, hearty and smothered with cheese. Five Long Island restaurants are experts on making a cold day extra toasty.

Library Cafe, Farmingdale

Sophisticated and casual, Library Cafe is the perfect place to unwind nestled in cozy, intimate booths warmed by the glow of soft fixtures. The French onion soup is loved for its creative twist: it's made with garlic crouton, caramelized Swiss and muenster. Phone: 516-752-7678 | Address: 274 Main St Click to taste
