Best Spots to Celebrate St. Patrick's Day

Grab your green... it's almost time to party!

The luck of the Irish is working double-time this year... it's not often that St. Patrick's Day falls on a Friday! So bust out your best green attire and get ready to celebrate in-style. Restaurants across Long Island are offering a variety of specials, including classic Irish fare and specialty drinks. Here are our top choices for you to enjoy!

Library Cafe, Farmingdale

Dig-in to Irish fare at the Library, including Guinness beef stew, Shepherd's pie, bangers and mash, corned beef and cabbage, and even Irish nachos - - crispy sliced potatoes, cheddar cheese, crispy bacon, tomatoes and jalapenos. Guinness pints will be flowing and Heineken bottles will be abundant, with Jameson shots too, all for $5 each.
