St. Patrick's Day calls for parades, pipe bands and pub crawls, but you can't forget about the food. Take a taste of the luck o' the Irish by celebrating St. Patrick's Day Long Island style. These local restaurants are serving up generous helpings of festively Irish fare.

Library Café, Farmingdale

Who says nachos can't be Irish? Library Café is serving Irish nachos: crispy sliced potatoes, cheddar cheese, crispy bacon, tomatoes and jalapeños. For those into a more traditional Irish meal, the restaurant will also be serving corned beef and cabbage, shepherd's pie, Guinness beef stew and bangers and mash. Go
