

Newsday

May 4, 2017

Let's go out, Mom

LI restaurants will do the cooking and make her day

You've earned it, Mom. This time, when you're asked what's for dinner, just say "reservations."

Yes, Mother's Day is one of the hospitality trade's biggest days. Countless restaurants will be offering specials for the big day in Nassau and Suffolk.

Here's a sampler of Long Island restaurants that plan to do just that. For these and other local spots, the best advice is to book that table as soon as possible. Tax and tip not included in prices.

LIBRARY CAFE in Farmingdale has a buffet brunch from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. that's $27.95 for adults and $13.50 for children 3 to 10; and a three-course dinner for $32.95. Among the dinner choices are lobster bisque, chopped salad, filet mignon, honey-glazed salmon and a stuffed pork loin with sundried tomatoes. Desserts include a chocolate mousse cake and New York-style cheesecake with Bailey's caramel sauce.

274 Main St., Farmingdale,
516-752-7678, lessings.com