Dine Out For Mother's Day

Relax and indulge at one of these Long Island restaurants on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 8th.

NASSAU

The Garden City Hotel

On Mother's Day, May 8, beginning at noon, the hotel's award-winning brunch, by Master Chef

Steven De Bruyn, is served in the legendary Grand Ballroom. It is $69 per person, plus tax and gratuity; and half-price, $34.50, for children under 12-years-old. A special dining activity for children is decorating cookies for their own Mother's Day presentation. On the brunch menu is a dazzling array of sumptuous culinary offerings including a myriad of hot and cold entrees. Among the top-rated selections are a seafood extravaganza with whole lobster, crab claws and jumbo shrimp and an artful display of smoked salmon and whitefish. There are artisan cheeses and carving stations featuring beef tenderloin and turkey breast. Prepared to order selections include gourmet pastas and sauces plus breakfast favorites such as made-to-order omelets and French toast. Sophisticated dessert displays showcase seasonally inspired cakes, pies, pastries, sweets and special Mother's Day cup cakes, plus assorted whole fruit and fruit salads. To compliment the brunch experience are unlimited brunch-cocktail favorites including Bloody Marys, Screwdrivers and Mimosas. Reservations are required. Self-parking and complimentary valet parking are available.

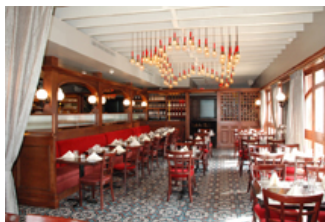

For those who wish to gift mothers with the extraordinary brunch experience any Sunday of the year, Sunday Brunch gift cards are available online and at the hotel gift shop.
