Mother's Day restaurants: LI eateries offering specials for mom

You've earned it, Mom.

This time, when you're asked what's for dinner, just say "reservations."

Yes, Mother's Day is one of the hospitality trade's biggest days. Countless restaurants will be offering specials for the big day in Nassau and Suffolk.

Here's a sampler of Long Island restaurants that plan to do just that. For these and other local spots, the best advice is to book that table as soon as possible. Tax and tip not included in prices.

SUFFOLK

VIEW in Oakdale will have an a la carte menu. Dishes include crabcakes with Meyer-lemon aioli ($18); Thai-style calamari ($15); local clams stuffed with bacon ($12); duck tacos with hoisin sauce ($14); lobster bisque ($11); pan-seared sea scallops with lobster-truffle risotto ($38); filet mignon with garlic potato puree ($44); garganelli pasta with lobster, corn and bacon ($31); cedar-roasted salmon with chorizo ($31); and desserts such as crème brûlée, berry cheesecake, chocolate marquise and strawberry parfait ($10 each); children 12 and younger eat for $12.
